Vincent Maiorana

ARTIST PROFILE

About 25 years ago, Vincent had his artistic interest awakened by studying acrylic painting with Plymouth artist Tom LeGault. With this start, he continued with watercolor classes from various well-known artists at the Visual Arts Association of Livonia (VAAL). He furthered his artistic development for many years with classes at Schoolcraft College with artist/teacher, Sandra Weed. He has also attended many one-week watercolor painting workshops in Indiana, Arizona, Pennsylvania and Michigan.

Vincent Maiorana's works have been on exhibit at Canton's Liberty Festival, Wyandotte and Livonia Art Fairs, Livonia City Hall, Dearborn Heights City Hall, Three Cities Art Club Shows, as well as local places of business. His watercolor paintings have been accepted into juried art shows in Northville (First Presbyterian Church's Sharing the Gift) and Canton (Canton Township's Fine Arts Exhibitions). Many private collectors own and enjoy his acrylic and watercolor art. He has taught watercolor classes at the Summit in Canton. Vincent's affiliations have included art clubs in Redford, Farmington and Livonia and he has been a member of Three Cities Art Club since 2002.
