Tax Tips for Artists

Member and tax accountant, Donna Knight, will explain the changes in tax laws which may affect how we artists prepare our income tax returns. As a small business, you may be able to write off part of your residence, studio space, supplies and other items which are directly related to your business. If you never considered this option, Donna will explain why you might as these deductions can add up to big savings!

If you have specific questions, please email Donna as soon as possible at astro1ADJK@gmail.com so she will be prepared with answers.
