Marilyn Meredith “Instructions on How to Work the Festival”

We will review properly identifying our framed art, mat work, note cards, etc. so you can be paid for your sales; the layout of the festival; greeting guests, handing out programs—list of art included, inviting to enter free give-away for prizes, promoting the club, keeping guests from touching the art; how to handle sales including credit card transactions, logging each transaction so artists are properly credited for sales, providing receipts if requested, wrapping and bagging purchases, providing a free magazine if they want one; periodic checks to be sure art is hanging straight; keep tables neat, restock entry forms, programs, membership brochures, etc. when needed. There will be a Q & A as well.

Congratulations to Karen Yops who won Honorable Mention at the Wyandotte Art Fair

PRESENTATION
Lee Kellar Teaches Us
Terry Madden Style
Watercolor

The Irises by Lee Kellar

Lee Kellar, a
Terry Madden Certified Instructor

Lee Kellar is a Michigan Watercolorist who winters in Florida. Art has been a passion for her most of her life and has highly influenced her activities since childhood.

She studied art first at Western Michigan University in Michigan and later with Professor Emeritus Larry Cromwell of the University of Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Lee has exhibited in Canada, in Michigan and in Florida.

Lee obtained certification with Terry Madden, a well known Florida artist, over 11 years ago and has been teaching his techniques and methodology ever since. She conducts classes and workshops in watercolor and coaches students privately.

Tree Frog by Lee Kellar

Her paintings are characterized by her love of color and design, and she loves to paint a wide variety of subject matter, including animals, landscapes, flowers, and whatever challenges her.

She is a member of many art organizations including Traverse City Art Society, Northville Art Center, and the Zephyrhills Art Club.

Monday's meeting will be a workshop so bring your watercolor supplies including brushes, water container and a piece of sized, mounted watercolor paper if you want to paint along with Lee.
