Portraiture in Watercolor

By Al Weber

Al Weber has provided our club with many demonstrations and workshops. This time his demonstration will focus on portraiture using watercolor. Be sure to bring your notebooks to take notes.

Al works in watercolor, acrylic, mixed media, silver point and pen and ink. His subjects include landscapes, portraits and figure studies, animals and abstracts.

He studied at Art Center College of Design, Pasadena, CA; Purdue University; Indiana University; and has taken workshops with a number of internationally known watercolor artists.

He has works in private collections in numerous states, Brazil, Canada, England, Scotland and New Zealand. They hang in corporate collections at Arco Chemical and The University of Michigan Dearborn.

Al has exhibited in venues in south eastern Michigan with solo exhibits at the Scarab Club, Southfield Cultural Center, Dearborn Chamber of Commerce, Shiawassee Arts Center, Livonia Civic Center Library Gallery, Coach House Gallery, Plymouth Community Arts Council and Canton Village Theater.

Has received numerous awards in juried exhibitions. Most recently a Traveling Exhibit award in the 2015 Michigan Water Color Exhibition and 2nd Place in The VAAL Fall Exhibition.
