March Program Critique by Kim Ensich

Kim Ensich is a visual artist currently working in layered paper and fiber collage. She hand stain/paint assorted fine art papers and fibers and then glue layer upon layer until the image emerges up from the surface. She offers workshops in mixed media/collage and is also offering beginning through intermediate oil and acrylic painting classes in her home studio as well as at the Northville Art House and Livonia's VAAL.

Members are encouraged to bring 1 or 2 pieces of art they are working on that they would like to have Kim analyze and share her thoughts on use of color, composition, balance, etc. and make suggestions on ways to possibly improve or enhance your work.

We all benefit from hearing professional critiques so be sure to attend.
