Juror/Judge: Monte Nagler Mr. Nagler is a noted writer, lecturer and teacher of photography. With a masters from the University of Michigan, Monte Nagler became a car designer and product planner in the automotive industry. Eventually, he turned his creative energy to photography. His passion and drive for photography were greatly enhanced after an intensive workshop with Ansel Adams in Yosemite National Park. He conducts classes and seminars throughout the world. Not only has he written a popular newspaper column, but he is the author of six highly successful photography books. Frequently, he is called upon to jury competitions and to speak on photography topics on local radio and television stations. We are fortunate to have this noted artist to select the works to be in our exhibition and choose the winners of top prizes.
