

James Bramlet—Artist

Member of Three Cities Art Club

THE ARTIST'S STATEMENT

People often say, “I can barely draw stick figures,” when it comes to a dialogue of visual art. One could respond by saying, “you have to start somewhere.” And then you’ve completed the first step in getting your artistic license—which actually you already have from finger painting in grade school. In other words, drawing and painting is for everyone for really, we’re all artists (and what a joy it is).

James Bramlet

