NOVEMBER PRESENTATION Todd Burroughs, Director Atelier School of Art

Atelier School of Art Director, Todd Burroughs, will provide us with an introduction to this Royal Oak art school offering classes for those of all experience levels. They are committed to helping people pursue their natural inclination to create. They have created an environment to nurture, educate and encourage individuals to achieve the highest level of artistic success.

Please join us for this unique chance to learn about this great place to take classes and see works by some of their members.

For more information about in-person and on-line classes, visit their website www.atelierschoolofart.com.

ASSISTANCE IS REQUIRED!

If you or anyone you know are able to help with any or all of the following tasks, it would be greatly appreciated. We will direct assistants and provide training as needed.

Tasks and time help is required:

9:00 - 10:00 - Take down art currently hanging and help the artists who are picking up their work, call if they don't arrive by deadline, if needed;

9:00 - 10:30 - After check-in, move pieces for the Call for Artists Exhibition and place art leaning on walls around the gallery with show cards for jury/judging;

10:00 - 11:30 - Assist juror/judge with moving art as needed during the selection (keeping show cards with each piece);

11:30 - 2:00 - Help move art not accepted to designated area and accepted art as directed by Gwen and once arranged, hang them;

12:00 - 12:30 - Contact artists by phone to advise as to which of their work was accepted or not (can be done from home);

1:00 - 2:00 - Help make sure non-accepted art are collected by the artists, call if they don't arrive by deadline, if needed;

1:30 - 2:00 - Help make sure art and show cards are hanging properly so the show looks great.

Please contact Gwen Roth at 248-238-7967 or email her at gwenrothphoto@gmail.com to let her know we can count on you!!
